In a surprise reveal that no one saw coming, but has delighted families nationwide, The Wiggles have today announced an exciting new chapter celebrating the wildly popular character The Tree of Wisdom.

This includes 'The Wiggles' Tree of Wisdom Arena Spectacular Tour', a forthcoming studio album (out October 3), and two brand-new singles available now.

The national arena tour begins November 1, 2025 with American Express Card Member Pre-Sale tickets available from tomorrow, July 30 at 1PM local time before tickets for the tour go on sale from Friday, August 1 at 2PM local time. This will lead to a performance at the Toyota 54th Tamworth Country

Music Festival - marking The Wiggles’ second appearance at the iconic Australian event - with tickets on sale today.

The Tree of Wisdom has taken over the internet, with his signature “dance like no-ones watching” routines going viral on social media, tallying over 200 million views, and a growing, devoted fanbase that includes Khloé Kardashian and countless other parents around the globe.

The man behind the twirling trunk is Dominic Field, nephew of OG Blue Wiggle Anthony Field, “People just seem to connect with my character and my dance moves” says Dominic. “They're the kind of moves everyone grew up with, like the classic sprinkler. I’ve got a new one I call “shakin’ the leaves”. For some reason, my dancing seems to generate a lot of laughter from both children and grown-ups ... I just own it!”

Ahead of the album release, two new tracks have been unveiled today: ‘Nutbush City Limits’, a reimagining of Tina Turner’s hit sung by Yellow Wiggle Tsehay Hawkins and The Tree of Wisdom that is sure to be the soundtrack for kitchen discos and family boogies; and ‘Rika-Pudy-Fan-Dan-Doogly!’, a nonsensical, high-energy original that celebrates rhythm, laughter, and the joy of moving together. This song is based on The Tree of Wisdom’s unforgettable catchphrase that’s already echoing through playgrounds and homes around the globe.

Both songs feature on The Wiggles’ upcoming album, ‘The Tree of Wisdom’, out Friday October 3. The album is now available for pre-order/pre-save on all music platforms, including a limited-edition vinyl.

There's something about Dom's energy that brings joy to everyone in the room ... I'm a very proud uncle. We can't wait for audiences across Australia to experience this spectacular show, especially our performance at the incredible Tamworth Country Music Festival!"

'The Wiggles' Tree of Wisdom Big Show Arena Spectacular Tour is proudly sponsored by the Australian Fruit and Vegetable Industry – which is launching a new national campaign called 'Fruit and Veggies Yummy Yummy'.

Drawing on the power of song, colour and fun, the campaign aims to inspire Aussie children to eat more fruit and vegetables. It features a playful twist on the iconic Wiggles' hit 'Fruit Salad Yummy Yummy', and will roll out nationwide during the tour, as well as through digital, social and retail channels, concerts and educational resources, reinforcing The Wiggles' long-standing mission to educate through the joy of music.

In a concert filled with arena-sized surprises, this high-energy extravaganza is set to have the whole family singing, dancing and Wiggling from start to end! Set in a spectacular 360° Arena Show experience, it's an all-round party that puts The Wiggles and all their Wiggly friends at the centre of the action.
